Circulation of counterfeits notes of Rs. 500 and Rs. 1000 in capital

1687. SHRI ABU ASIM AZMI:
SHRI AMAR SINGH:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether Government is aware that counterfeits notes of Rs. 500 and Rs. 1000 are being circulated in huge number in the Capital;

if so, whether some arrests have been made recently in the capital in this regard and if so, the details thereof; and whether Government has found out the actual source of this, fake currency note and if so, the details thereof and action in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) to (c) Delhi Police has registered 39 cases of counterfeit notes in various denominations including Rs. 500 and Rs. 1000 upto 15th November in the year 2007 and has arrested 57 persons in this regard. In addition. Reserve Bank of India has informed that 898 counterfeit notes in the denomination of Rs. 500 and 203 counterfeit notes in the denomination of Rs. 1000 were detected during the period from October, 2006 to September, 2007 in the chest remittances received from the bank branches. Intelligence inputs suggest involvement of ISI in this regard. The Government has taken a number of steps to curb circulation of fake currency notes in the country which inter-alia include sharing of intelligence with the State Government; sharing up of vigilance by the Border Security Force/Customs authorities to prevent smuggling of fake currency notes into the country; dissemination of information on security features through print and electronic media for the benefit of public etc., sensitization of police officials and other security personnel performing their duties at Airport, Railway Stations and ISBT; regular checking of guesthouses; hotels etc.

Setting up of flying institute in Gondia

1688. SHRI DHARAM PAL SABHARWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether it is a fact that Gondia in the State of Maharashtra in a naxal-prone area;

if so, what are the details of naxal groups still active is Gondia District;

whether setting up of Flying Institute in Gondia is not conducive due to naxal activities and security clearance is necessary before setting up of Flying Institute there;

whether security clearance for setting up of Flying Institute has been given or under consideration of Government; and if so, the details in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (e) As per information available, in 2007, till 30-11-2007, there have been 3 incidents of naxalite violence, with no casualties, in Gondia district. This district is included under the Security Related Expenditure scheme, in which security-related expenditure is reimbursed to State Governments. It is also included under the scheme of Backward Regions Grant Fund.

Law and order being a State subject, dealing with the various aspects/issues related to naxalite activities in a State primarily lies in the domain of the concerned State Government. The Central Government, however, supplements the efforts and resources of the State Governments by various measures, which include assistance for modernization of the State police force, strengthening of the State intelligence agencies and training of the State police forces, as also sharing of intelligence and bringing about inter-State coordination.

Civil Aviation Requirement (CAR) from Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) inter alia requires security clearance of the board of directors of the company concerned. Till date, application for approval of DGCA for setting up a Flying Training Institute at Gondia has not been received from the company concerned.

Atrocities on OBCs, SCs, STs women

1689. SHRI KAMAL AKHTAR: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether the cases of atrocities on OBCs, SCs, STs women and minorities have increased in the last six months in Uttar Pradesh;

if so, the details in this regard;

whether the State Government of UP has started investigation in this regard;

whether the Union Government proposes to rehabilitate these victims;

if so, the details in this regard; and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) As per statistics available at the National Crime Records Bureau a total of 3782 cases of crimes against SCs, 24 cases of crimes against STs and 11453 cases of crimes against women were reported from January to July 2007* in Uttar Pradesh. Data related to atrocities on OBCs and minorities is not maintained at NCRB.

(*Provisional)

Month-wise deatils of crimes committed against SCs, STs and women from January to July, 2007 in Uttar Pradesh are given Statement I, II & III {See below).

to (f) Under the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, 'Police' and Public Order' are State subjects. Hence the primary responsibility of prevention, detection, registration, investigation and prosecution of crime, and rehabilitation of victims, if required, lies with the State Governments. However, the Ministry of Home Affairs has from time-to-time been issuing advisories to all the State Governments/Union Territory administrations, requesting them to give more focused attention on improving the administration of the criminal justice system.